

A SPECIAL BIRTHDAY SONG FOR NANCY!!!

(to the tune of John McCutcheon's favored birthday song: "Cut the Cake")

Chorus: It makes us think of the good old days
Happy Birthday to you
You sure grew out of your baby ways
Happy Birthday to you
It's your eightieth birthday, we wish you many more
Health and wealth and friends by the score
So cut the cake and let's eat some more
Happy Birthday to you!

Verse: Now you were born in nineteen forty
You were a sweet tiny baby.
So on the seventeenth of February, twenty twenty,
How old would you be?
Well eighty years is what you'd say
But now we count in the modern way
It's base sixteen that we use today
It's your fiftieth birthday!

Chorus: It makes us think of the good old days
Happy Birthday to you
You sure grew out of your baby ways
Happy Birthday to you
It's your fiftieth birthday, we wish you many more
Health and wealth and friends by the score
So cut the cake and let's eat some more
Happy Birthday to you!

Cut the Cake

(John McCutcheon's favored birthday song)

Text
and tune by Tina Liza Jones, verse lyrics by Peter and Anthony

It makes us think of the good old days, Hap-py Birth - day to you. You sure grew out of your ba - by ways, Hap-py Birth - day to you. It's your fif-ti-eth birth-day, we wish you ma-ny more;
Health and wealth and friends by the score; So cut the cake, and let's eat some more, Hap-py Birth - day to you!
